

Application for Full Member (SF02)

SPUVIC objectives and purposes

- To create a lasting platform where members and their offspring can nurture and cherish the values of 'Sanatana Dharma' and the Bengali heritage, language, arts, and cultures in Victoria.
- To regularly organise various Puja as per Vedic rituals with highest purity.
- To celebrate other Bengali festivals and regularly organise various socio-cultural programs.
- To promote respectful relationships among community members for maintaining enduring communal harmony.
- To establish own facilities in Victoria for performing and celebrating religious and cultural festivals and events.
- To assist overseas students and new arrivals of similar background in settling in Victoria.

SPUVIC founding principles

- All Puja shall be performed by Dr Jagannath Chatterjee, or his nominated priest or by a priest chosen with seventy-five percent life members' support.
- Celebration of Bengali festivals, cultural programs and other relevant events shall be chosen with seventy-five percent life members' support.
- All Puja, festivals and cultural events must be 'Sarbojanin' and therefore shall be open to members and non-members alike.
- Performance in cultural programs shall be limited to members only for nurturing new generation of performers and promoting talents within the community. For exceptional circumstances, external professional performers may be hired with MC' approval.
- Venues for Puja, festivals and other events including potential location for establishing own facilities shall be chosen with seventy-five percent life members' support.
- Always practice rules based management of the SPUVIC organisation for maintaining Australian democratic norms in the community.

SPUVIC code of conduct and behaviour

A primary goal of SPUVIC community is to be inclusive to achieve the above objectives and to create safe and positive experiences for everyone participating in SPUVIC organisation and events.

The SPUVIC code of conduct outlines our expectations for all those who participate in our community, puja and events, as well as the consequences for unacceptable behaviour.

Please download and read the full 'Code of Conduct and Behaviour' document from www.spuvic.org. Always follow the event-specific code of conduct displayed at event's venue.
